What a Weekend

THANK YOU!

From Friday to Monday this past weekend, Rotarians were on the move - doing what we do best - having fun while we support the needs of the community. You could find us everywhere at the Dunwoody Arts Festival - checking in artists, helping them get set up, telling the story of Dunwoody Rotary to festival attendees. And Monday, we were out in full force again - as golfers, sponsors and volunteers at our second annual FORE the Memories Golf Tournament. You'll hear more about the results and see more pictures in the days to come, but for now we just wanted to say THANK YOU to everyone who played a part in the weekend's activities.

And did we mention that we started the weekend off right with the induction of two new members on Friday morning - Alison Norris and Meghan Barry. Both were seen volunteering at our weekend events! Welcome to you both - and more information on each in our next newsletter!
