Rotary Club of Dunwoody

The Friendly Breakfast Club

JUNE 28, 2023

No Meeting This Friday

We've Reserved the Weekend for Our July 4 Activities

We don't want to see you at Rotary this Friday! Instead, join us for Float Decorating this Saturday, or at the Dunwoody Independence Day events on Tuesday! Read on for more info.

And, as a quick heads up (more to follow in next week's bulletin), we will be meeting at the AC Hotel next Friday, July 7 instead of LeMeridien!

Service and Fellowship

It's A Float Decorating Party!!!

Join us this Saturday morning - July 1 - at President Jack's house for Mimosas, Bloody Mary's and small bites as we bring back the art of fellowship and float decorating! There are stories told of years gone by when Past President Hardy Croom, then manager of the Dunwoody Country Club, would invite the Dunwoody Family of Rotary out to the country club for an afternoon of float decorating fun! We've included some pictures here from later float decorating

The Party Continues ... Celebrate Independence Day and a New Rotary Year with Dunwoody Rotary

The Dunwoody Family of Rotary has always been part of Dunwoody's Fourth of July Extravaganza - a tradition of more than 30 years! Most club members and their families have joined us on the parade route, as helpers in our hot dog stand at Dunwoody Village, or just to say hi and buy a hot dog, some baked goods, a soda. We'd love to keep that tradition going. Here are three ways to get involved:

- Share your baking skills: We plan to sell individually wrapped baked goods at the hot dog stand - bring your best brownies, cookies, etc. Contact Kobelah or Ed Holliday with questions on this.
- Walk with President Jack in the parade: Arrival times start at 7:30, parade starts at 9:00. There is no parking on
