The Friendly Breakfast Club

OCTOBER 21, 2026

This Week's Speaker

Felicia Voloschin, Rockin' Finance CEO

Passionate about education, Felicia has been conducting finance seminars since 2007. It all started when she was asked to give a presentation to her son's kindergarten class for career week. Knowing that her calculator was no match against the doctor's stethoscope or the contractor's building tools, Felicia planned an elaborate, interactive presentation about "Kinder Parkway" where the 5-year olds were asked to share their dream jobs, drive to work, earn money and problem-solve real life financial scenarios. She made the complex and boring subjects introduced, fun and easy to grasp. It made a big impression on the 5-year olds, and an even bigger one on Felicia.

As news of the Kinder Parkway presentation spread, requests for presentations for all ages grew. By 2009 the groundwork was laid and Rockin' Finance was born. Parents and teachers then asked if Felicia could de-mystify some of their financial problems with interactive seminars for adults. By integrating music, sports, fashion and games Felicia has found a way to reach all types of learners, breaking down the barriers for both kids and adults who used to say, “Finance is just not my thing.” In addition to our self-published children’s books, plans are well underway to roll-out a variety of interactive tools to make financial literacy possible for children and adults at every age. Our up-coming coordinated books, magazines, family board games, video games and online interactive audio/visual programs, truly strive to maximize the use of “edu-tainment,” the combination of innovative education combined with entertainment.

Record Setting Crowd Invades Bounds Gardens (in a Good Way)!

From Ranger Fred ...

I know you, like me, have always wondered how many Sprucetarians can simultaneously fit in the prettiest .005 acre park in Dunwoody. While we're still not sure, it's at least FIFTEEN! You read that right ... 3X5, 6+9, 5+10. More that EVER! A Club Record.

How long did it take the intrepid Sprucetarians to work their magic? THIRTY MINUTES. A Club Record.

For the Dunwoody book of world records, the names should include Bob O'Brien, Tina Philpot, Dakve Burr, Mark and Stephanie Galvin, Rick Otness, Jason Creech, Alison Norris, Fred Bounds, Amy and Neal MacDonald, Steve Dolinger, Jennifer Shumway, Jay Brackman and Mitzi Nietzsche, Amy's mom visiting from Peoria.

We have more fun than the law allows. You can too. Get off the sidelines and join us January 16, 2027.

Oh, and if you didn't know, Bounds Gardens is the unassuming traffic island across from the Dunwoody library. Direct flights to the park are available from anywhere - and the only tickets you need is a garden tool and a pair of gloves.

And from our president Dave ... Thanks to Ranger Fred (Bounds) for organizing our work parties and to all who come out to support this work.
